SMITH WINS BY 22,000; HOOPER ELECTORAL VOTES

Today

At Least, Big Voting
Home Goes Coolidge
Another Pasture Wanted
Mussolini on Movies

By Arthur Brisbane

Cheerful, but, by the way, the NEWS COLUMNS will supply you with facts and opinion on the election.

The main thing is that people really took the trouble to vote, something that comparatively few have done usually.

It would have been interesting to know how many of the questions around the unusual interest, rather than questions aside from American government.

But voting for any reason is wrong.

Old Vermont farmers that knew "Cal Coolidge," a little boy, helping his father with the farm chores, would have been amazed to see the name "Cal" yesterday getting out of a seven car special train, taking him from the White House to the polls at Northampton, Mass.

The President cast his first vote in Northampton, where he was elected, long ago, and has been steadily in office, ever since, nominated again at twenty times more votes. A record in politics as good as Cromwell's in war.
Cromwell never lost a battle.

The old farmers would observe with pleasure that before President, with $75,000 a year salary, a White House and a big yacht have not spoiled Calvin Coolidge. Next March he will move from the White House to Northampton, and resume life in a small house which he rents for $32.50 a month.

Such a man is not dependent on money. But the President could save plenty of it. More than one law firm would be glad to guarantee him three times his presidential salary.
And he would not have to work hard. Perhaps the President chosen to wait awhile long enough, and possibly take a second election term in the White House eight years hence.

The erection of the fine statue to the great Frenchman Pasteur honors Chicago. Excepting the Lincoln statue, none in Chicago is erected to so noble and useful a man.

Dr. Leopold Stieglitz of New York, able scientist and brilliant diagnostician, brother of Professor John Stieglitz who teaches chemistry at Chicago University, says: "We need a Pasteur to solve the cancer problem. That task calls for a man free of preconceived notions and prejudices, not a man of medical training,
seeking to explain cancer, according to old methods."

The important sometimes ask
"Of what real use is science?"
Bismarck taking five billion francs from France after the war of 1870, thought he had reached the limit. Dr. Stieglitz reminds you that the cash value to France of Pasteur's discoveries far exceeds five billion francs, to say nothing of his work against human disease and suffering.

New York, Nov. 7.—The electoral hurricane that blew Herbert Hoover into the presidency by the greatest Republican electoral majority in history was still going today. Smith may have 27 electoral votes, Hoover 44 in 40 states.

North Carolina has joined Virginia and Florida in the break-up of the solid South, and turns today put the state the basis of the latest official returns, which are complete with the exception of eight cities.

hind Senator David I. Walsh, who polled the tremendous vote of 835,210 in defeating B. Loring

But neither Smith nor Walsh could carry Gen.
Charles H. Cole to victory in the gubernatorial race.

VICTORS IN GREAT FIGHT AND THEIR FAMILIES

BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1928

This is one of the latest and best photos of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, who on next March 4 will become the First Lady of the nation. She will be no stranger to social circles in the capital. For many years she has been one of its most charming hostesses. During the time Herbert Hoover was Secretary of Commerce, Mrs. Hoover endeared herself to all in the social life of the capital. She also has been a favorite of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, the present First Lady.

He's happy now. This is one of the last photos taken of Herbert Hoover before he started his long trip to the Coast to cast his ballot. He is shown acknowledging the greeting of cheering thousands. Every city Hoover visited during the campaign he was greeted by thousands, and the reception he received in Boston was one of the greatest of his tour of the nation. Herbert Hoover voted on the campus of Stanton University in California.

GOVERNOR-ELECT ALLEN IS REAL VETERAN IN POLITICAL GAME

HAS BEEN IN OFFICE 17 YEARS

The elevation of Frank G. Allen of Norwood to the office of Governor of the nation's oldest Commonwealth climaxes a career of 17 years in holding public office.

Since 1912 he has been in the political service, becoming an chairman of the Norwood Board of Assessors.

During the years intervening, he has been successively chairman of the Norwood Board of Selectmen, Representative in the Legislature from the eighth Norfolk district, State Senator, president of the State and Lieutenant Governor.

Governor-elect Allen was born 54 years ago on Oct. 4, 1874, at Lynn, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. and Abbie L. Allen.

He attended Lynn public school, but following graduation his parents moved to Norwood, where he has since made his home.

As a business man the new Governor of Massachusetts has had a successful career.

He entered the leather business as a young man, first being associated with his father in Lynn. From his father's firm he advanced into a connection with the leather firm of Winslow Bros., now Winslow & Co. of Boston.

MARRIED DAUGHTER'S CHUM

At the age of 24 he was married to Miss Clara H. Winslow of a family of Norwood, formerly known as South Dedham.

The marriage took place on December 2, 1907, and their daughter, Miss Mary Allen, who since has been graduated from Wellesley College.

Mrs. Allen died August 11, 1921, at the family home at Marshfield Neck, after a long illness.

On November 24, 1927, Governor-elect Allen was married to Miss Eleanor Hamilton of Pittsford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hamilton, when the two were students at Wellesley.

Today, the 54-year-old bride of a year, became the First Lady of Massachusetts.

The Governor-elect served five years in his first public post with the Norwood board of assessors. In 1916 he advanced from this board to the Norwood board of selectmen and in the following year was made chairman, serving until 1918.

The eighth Norfolk District elected him as a Representative in the Legislature in 1918. He served two years in this capacity, and in 1920 was elevated to the State Senate, also from the Norfolk District.

In the following term, his fellow Senators elected him president of the upper house.

While in the House, and again in the Senate, he made a special study of taxation and served as chairman of the legislative taxation committee in both branches.

STATE FINANCIAL EXPERT

He also made a special study of the finances of the State and rendered valuable service to both Governor Coolidge and Cox while still a member of the General Court.

In 1919, the Governor-elect served on the special commission on street railways, known as the Coolidge Street Railway Commission.

His election as lieutenant-governor came four years ago and during his two terms in that office he bore the reputation of having been consulted by the Governor more generally than any lieutenant-governor in years.

The new Governor is president of the Eastern Leather Co., president and a director of Winslow Bros. & Smith Co., director of Winslow & Co., a director of the High Brothers Co., a director of the United States Worsted Co., the American Fur Co. and the Newwood Trust Co. of Norwood.

The Democrats hope to win by a landslide, and the Republicans are expected to win by a landslide.

Senator Heflin Says: "I Told 'Em What Would Happen"

Lafayette, Ala., Nov. 7 (AP)—

"I told you so."

It was Senator Thomas J. Heflin, the stormy petrel of Ala. politics, speaking.

"I told the Senate that if Smith was nominated it would tear the Democratic party to pieces, and that he would be overwhelmingly defeated. In fact, I predicted he would be the worst beaten candidate ever to head the Democratic party. And he was."

"I said Smith would not carry ten states and that he wouldn't win in New York, and he didn't. Everything I've said has come true, and I'm of course very happy. We are through with Smith, Robinson and the Tammany bunch."

FIVE INSURED IN AUTO CRASH AT WEYMOUTH

Hurtled through the windshield of his own machine against the front of another car in a Weymouth collision today Percy Hutchinson, 41 Madison st., Weymouth, sustained injuries that may prove fatal.

Two other occupants of his machine, George Levine, Woodman ave., Quincy, and Walter Brisson, of 30 Roberts st., Quincy, who were returning with him after getting out an election extra for the Quincy Patriot Ledger, are at the Weymouth hospital with serious injuries. Levine has internal injuries and is on the danger list.

The trio was driving along the road near the Bush river bridge when Hutchinson's car crashed into an auto driven by Warren Foster of Shropshire st., Dorchester. The latter, with Miss Florence Averill of Dorchester, suffered minor injuries and after treatment at the hospital went to their homes.

SEN. WALSH IS THREALED BY BIG VICTORY

Thrilled by his extraordinary triumph at the polls, Senator Francis J. Walsh today expressed his appreciation and gratitude through The Boston Evening American to the half million men and women of both major parties who returned him to Washington for the next six years.

PRIZES WITH VOTE

"I am gratified that Governor Smith has carried the state by such a substantial majority. It shows that his majority will be about 20,000. Considering the terrific five made by the Democratic organization to keep Massachusetts Republican, Governor Smith's triumph was one of the outstanding feats of the election.

"The one note of disappointment and regret is the general failure of Gen. Cole to win the Governorship. No candidate of any party made a more gallant fight. In my view, except a presidential year, it is always difficult for a Republican to serve who is not a native son of the state, and it is always difficult for a Republican to serve who is not a native son of the state.

"The independence which the people of Massachusetts gave me places me in an added responsibility. I will endeavor to give the people of Massachusetts the best of my service and to give the people of Massachusetts the best of my service.

HANKS SUPPORTERS.

"I am deeply indebted to the Boston Evening American, an able and able coadjutor in my campaign, and to the many friends and supporters who have helped me in my campaign. I am deeply indebted to the Boston Evening American, an able and able coadjutor in my campaign, and to the many friends and supporters who have helped me in my campaign.

Fordham Is Even Eet in Clash With Eagles

B.C. COACH FEARS N.Y. TEAM

McKenney Scouted Fordham; Much Impressed by Power of Craven's Eleven

By JOHN B. GILLOOLY
Coach Joe McKenney, back from New York after watching Fordham play West Virginia last night, says he is very much impressed by the variety of play of the scrumming at New York this afternoon. And it looks like the most important civil strife that has been held between the Maroon and Gold warriors this fall.

It may not last long, but while the teams are in there they'll play with all the fight possible. For the second string players are all trying to show enough to win the first-call reserve berths.

The variety first team would not put too much stress on the conflict, but the second team will force them to. And it will be a best tonic for the Eagles. A lot of time to fit for Fordham Coach McKenney, a top scout who spent the day of before the Boston 1 practice a time before the team, decided to have a game every Wednesday until the Holy Cross week.

Starting tomorrow afternoon the B.C. team will be on the Fordham rink at Charles Street, and McKenney will not leave the campus until the game.

MILK CASPER...
THE GIRL WHO WENT TO SCHOOL WITH ME! I HAD TO SEE A THOUSAND PAINTED FACES TO REALIZE HOW GOOD HER WILLOW
LOOK TO ME! IT TOOK THE HOTHOUSE FLOWERS
OF THE CITY TO MAKE ME
APPRECIATE A COUNTRY VIOLET!
I JUST CAN'T WAIT TO SEE HER!
